

MATH 71. Syllabus

This one-credit course is open to students with at least eight credits in advanced Mathematics Department courses; and senior standing or permission from the chairperson. Topics vary from year to year and are selected from graph theory, topology, game theory, number theory, recreational mathematics, and other applications.